Dear Book Browser,

Welcome and enjoy! Our mission at Yale University Press is to publish books that contribute to a global understanding of human affairs, advance scholarship and interdisciplinary inquiry, stimulate public debate, and enhance cultural life. The books under the behavioral sciences umbrella contribute to this mission and range across psychology and social psychology, cognitive science, mindfulness studies, mental health issues, medicine and neuroscience, child development, caregiving, and animal cognition and behavior.

Of note are Susan Lanzoni's Empathy; Michele Baddley's Copycats and Contrarians; Nick Chater's The Mind Is Flat; Pascal Boyer's Minds Make Societies; Kelly Lambert's Well-Grounded; and David Scott Kastan's On Color. We welcome back Donna Hicks on Leading with Dignity; Rob DeSalle on Our Senses; and Andrew J. Friedland and colleagues with a new edition of Writing Successful Science Proposals.

The backlist classics include ones in print for more than 50 years: Fromm's Psychoanalysis and Religion; Jacobi's The Psychology of C. G. Jung; and Allport's Becoming. And best-sellers: Daly's Advocacy; Marilynne Robinson's Absence of Mind; Eisner's The Arts and Creation of Mind; and Jonathan Glover's Humanity.

Many of our titles are available as print and electronic editions. Please visit our website (www.yalebooks.com) for a complete list. We would be pleased to hear from you about new manuscripts and proposals.

Enjoy!

Law and the Unconscious*A Psychoanalytic Perspective*

ANNE C. DAILEY

To live up to its highest ideals, the law must take account of the ways in which our unconscious minds influence our everyday thoughts and behavior. At the intersection of law and psychology, this book offers a new, psychoanalytically grounded, and humane view of the law. Winner of the Sharon Harris 2018 Book Award, given by The University of Connecticut, for the best book published in the humanities HC - Paper over Board 2017 304 pp. 978-0-300-18883-7 $40.00

The Logic of Miracles*Making Sense of Rare, Really Rare, and Impossibly Rare Events*

LÁSZLÓ MÉRO; TRANSLATED BY MÁRTON MOLDOVÁN; TRANSLATION EDITED BY DAVID KRAMER

The renowned Hungarian mathematician and psychologist László Méro explains how the wild (Wildovia) and the mild (Mildovia) worlds coexist and the different laws that apply to each. In doing so, he strikes a balance between economics and complexity theory, proposing to extend the ability of science to quantify the unpredictable, unrepeatable, highly improbable events we commonly call “miracles.”

Nudge

Improving Decisions About Health, Wealth, and Happiness

RICHARD H. THALER AND CASS R. SUNSTEIN

Every day we make decisions on topics ranging from the personal investments we select to the schools we pick for our children to the foods we eat to the causes we champion. Unfortunately, as authors Richard H. Thaler and Cass R. Sunstein astutely observe, we don't always choose well. The reason, the authors explain, is that we all are susceptible to cognitive biases and blunders that make us human, fallible, and prone to error.

Why Nudge?

The Politics of Libertarian Paternalism

CASS R. SUNSTEIN

Based on studies in behavioral economics establishing that people often act counter to their own best interests, this highly provocative work by best-selling author Cass R. Sunstein argues strongly in favor of the regulation of personal behavior by a paternalistic "welfarist" government.

Carnivore Minds*Who These Fearsome Animals Really Are*

G. A. BRADSHAW

This pioneering book explores the complex minds and experiences of grizzlies, sharks, rattlesnakes, orcas, and other carnivores. Using neuropsychology as a lens, the author reveals the marked similarities between these animals' emotions and our own, then suggests a more ethical approach to uninformed wildlife policies that have devastated carnivore populations.
