

CONTENTS

Foreword by Leon Wieseltier / vii

Introduction / 1

A GENIUS FOR CONFLICT

The Life of British Politics

Sketches of MPs / 41

The BBC Attitude to Politics / 46

In Defence of Ordinarity / 51

On the Comforts of Anger / 55

Evolution of a Term: The Establishment / 68

Chips of Memory / 92

A Volcanic Flash: Winston Churchill / 99

THE LAST, BEST HOPE FOR MANKIND

American Space and Time

A Cheer for American Imperialism / 115

In Defense of Big Government / 126

Let the Convention Be “a Brawl” / 137

The Importance of Bathtubs: Fairlie at Large / 141

Mencken’s Booboisie in Control of GOP: Fairlie at Large / 146

The Voice of Hope: Franklin D. Roosevelt / 151

My America! / 162

If Pooh Were President: A Tory's Riposte to Reaganism / 180
Migration: Washington Diarist / 193
Citizen Kennedy / 197
The Idiocy of Urban Life / 203
Merry FAXmas: Washington Diarist / 212
Greedy Geezers / 217
Brief Whining Moments: The Collapse of Oratory / 226
Pen Ultimate / 235
Spurious George / 240
Perrier on the Rocks / 245
An Evening with Hooter / 249

THE HARLOT'S PREROGATIVE

Writers and the Press

Necessary Weapons / 263
Press Against Politics / 268
Magnates, Mischief, and Mass Circulation / 280
How Journalists Get Rich / 293
A Radical and a Patriot: Randolph Bourne / 305
Tory Days: George F. Will / 325
When Challenger Fell from the Sky / 343

Acknowledgments / 347

Index / 349