

Contents

List of Illustrations xi

Preface

The Poetry of Earth Is Never Dead xiii

Introduction

Care in Such a World 1

PART ONE

“stony rocks for the conies”

Singing Ecology unto the Lord 19

“Western wind, when will thou blow”

Anon Was an Environmentalist 28

“The stationary blasts of waterfalls”

Blake, the Wordsworths, and the Dung 34

“The white Eddy-rose . . . obstinate in resurrection”

Coleridge Imagining 39

“last ooziings hours by hours”

John Keats Eking It Out 46

“Its only bondage was the circling sky”

John Clare at Home in Helpston 56

“Nature was naked, and I was also”

Adamic Walt Whitman 64

“Earth’s most graphic transaction”

Syllables of Emily Dickinson 75

“sick leaves . . . storm-birds . . . rotten rose . . . rain-drop”

Nature Shadowing Thomas Hardy 88

“freshness deep down things”

The World Charged by Gerard Manley Hopkins 94

“O honey bees, / Come build in the empty house of the stare”

Nature Versus History in W. B. Yeats 104

PART TWO

“strangeness from my sight”

Robert Frost and the Fun in How You Say a Thing 115

“white water rode the black forever”

Frost and the Necessity of Metaphor 123

“Larks singing over No Man’s Land”

England Thanks to Edward Thomas, 1914–1917 130

“the necessary angel of earth”

Wings of Wallace Stevens 136

“broken / seedhusks”

Reviving America with William Carlos Williams 141

“source then a blue as”

Williams and the Environmental News 149

“room for me and a mountain lion”

D. H. Lawrence in Taormina and Taos 162

“not man / Apart”

Ocean, Rock, Hawk, and Robinson Jeffers 170

“submerged shafts of the / / sun, / split like spun / glass”

Marianne Moore’s Fantastic Reverence 176

“There, there where those black spruces crowd”

To Steepletop and Ragged Island with Edna St. Vincent Millay 184

“Gale sustained on a slope”

Pablo Neruda at Machu Picchu 194

“the wild / braid of creation / trembles”

Stanley Kunitz—His Nettled Field, His Dune Garden 202

“Bright trout poised in the current”

Things Whole and Holy for Kenneth Rexroth 211

“I swayed out on the wildest wave alive”

Theodore Roethke from Greenhouse to Seascape 216

“That they are there!”

George Oppen’s Psalm of Attentiveness 223

“surprised at seeing”

Elizabeth Bishop Traveling 228

“Why is your mouth all green?”

Something Alive in May Swenson 239

PART THREE

“care in such a world”

Earth Home to William Stafford 251

“The season’s ill”

America’s Angst and Robert Lowell’s 259

“that witnessing presence”

Life Illumined Around Denise Levertov 266

“the tree making us / look again”

Shirley Kaufman’s Roots in the Air 275

“that the rock might see”
News of the North from John Haines	282
“asking for my human breath”
Trust in Maxine Kumin	290
“What are you doing out here / this windy”
Wind in the Reeds in the Voice of A. R. Ammons	294
“between the earth and silence”
W. S. Merwin’s Motion of Mind	301
“bear blood” and “Blackberry Eating”
Zest of Galway Kinnell	309
“Kicking the Leaves”
Donald Hall and Jane Kenyon at Eagle Pond Farm	318
“I dared not cast / / But silently cast”
Ted Hughes Capturing Pike	327
“the still pond and the egrets beating home”
Derek Walcott, First to See Them	335
“It looks just like the Cascades”
Gary Snyder’s Eye for the Real World	344
“Just imagine”
Can Poetry Save the Earth?	355
Sources	359
Text Credits	373
Acknowledgments	378
Index	381

Illustrations

BLACK AND WHITE

Scared Buffalo	11
God creating the birds sees Adam in His thought	22
Western Wind	28
Dorothy Wordsworth	36
Waterfall at Ambleside	48
Keats, "To Autumn"	51
John Clare, Glossary page	59
Helpston, before and after Enclosure	60–61
Walt Whitman, 1855	65
Emily Dickinson, ca. 1855	77
Walt Whitman with Butterfly	79
Emily Dickinson, "A narrow Fellow in the Grass"	84–85
Gerard Manley Hopkins, "Balaglas"	102
"Lapis Lazuli" stone, front	110
"Lapis Lazuli" stone, back	111
William Carlos Williams	146
Alfred Stieglitz, Spring Showers	156
Tor House and Hawk Tower	173
Marianne Moore	178
Marianne Moore, Mount Rainier	179
Robinson Jeffers and Edna St. Vincent Millay	190
Edna St. Vincent Millay protesting	191
Machu Picchu, Martín Chambi	198
Machu Picchu, Torreón Complex	200
Wellfleet Whale	207
Deer	227
Emily Dickinson, ca. 1847	241
Emily Dickinson (retouched daguerreotype)	241

May Swenson	247
Denise Levertov, "An English Field in the Nuclear Age"	270
Alaskan Glacier	283
Building the Homestead	285
The Last of the Curlews , Fred Bodsworth	305
Galway Kinnell	316
Islands, Mountains, Houses, Bridge , Guan Huai	345
Gary Snyder at Sourdough Mountain	347
Gary Snyder at Crater Mountain Lookout	348
Islands, Mountains, Houses, Bridge , detail	349
Mount St. Helens, Gary Snyder	354

COLOR

Gallery follows page 210

1. William Blake, Creation
2. John James Audubon, Osprey
3. Western Wind, sixteenth-century manuscript
4. Dorothy Wordsworth
5. Simplon Pass
6. John Constable, A Cloud Study
7. "Lapis Lazuli" stone, front
8. "Lapis Lazuli" stone, back
9. Cellar bin, Frost farm
10. D. H. Lawrence, Birds, Beasts and Flowers!
11. Not Man Apart
12. "Oh, Lovely Rock," Robinson Jeffers
13. Edna St. Vincent Millay, "Counting-out Rhyme"
14. Stanley Kunitz
15. Deer
16. George Hutchinson, Great Village, Nova Scotia
17. Fred Bodsworth, The Last of the Curlews
18. Donald Hall, Ox-Cart Man
19. Derek Walcott, Breakers, Becune Point, 1995
20. Islands, Mountains, Houses, Bridge, Guan Huai
21. Islands, Mountains, Houses, Bridge, detail
22. Yucky Pollution, Shiny Pretty