

Contents

Preface	vii
Introduction	i
Part One. Restoring the Vital Center
1. Overcoming Polarization: The New Social Morality Daniel Yankelovich	17
2. Nurturing Economic Growth and the Values of American Democracy Norton Garfinkle	31
Part Two. Reforming Social Security and Health Care
3. Social Security and Medicare Reform for the Twenty-First Century Will Marshall	49
4. The Ethics of America's Health Care Debate Tsung-mei Cheng and Uwe E. Reinhardt	67
Part Three. Diversity and Unity
5. Religion as Unifier and Divider Alan Wolfe	93

6. Diversity, Community, and Government Peter H. Schuck	109
7. Immigration and Social Disorder Peter Skerry	124
Part Four. Security and Liberty
8. Fighting the War on Terrorism Francis Fukuyama	141
9. Constitutional Responsibility in the War on Terrorism Michael Vatis	155
Part Five. Character, Citizenship, and Values
10. Character Education and the Challenge of Raising a Moral Generation Chester E. Finn, Jr.	181
11. Citizenship, Civic Unity, and National Service William A. Galston	198
12. The Fair Society Amitai Etzioni	211
Part Six. Environmental and Electoral Reform
13. Toward a Sustainable Environmentalism Mark Sagoff	227
14. Is Reform of America's Electoral System Possible? Thomas E. Mann	245
Conclusion: The Impact of Fateful Trends	265
Contributors	269
Index	271