

Contents

- Preface ix
- Introduction xiii
- 1 Conversion, Message, Medium, Transformation:
Dostoevsky and the Peasants 1
- 2 Guilt, Repentance, and the Pursuit of Art in
The House of the Dead 22
- 3 Crime and Punishment in the Classroom:
The Elephant in the Garden 44
- 4 The Gospel According to Dostoevsky: Paradox, Plot, and Parable 68
- 5 Transformations, Exposures, and Intimations of Rousseau in The Possessed 86
- 6 Unsealing the Generic Envelope and Deciphering
“The Dream of a Ridiculous Man” 105
- 7 Evocations and Revocations of Anxiety in the Metaphysical Novel:
Reading The Brothers Karamazov through the Lens of Melmoth the Wanderer 128

viii Contents

8 Perilous Journeys to Conversion: Adventures in Time and Space 148

Concluding Fragments: Some Last Words 173

Notes 189

Index 231

Illustrations follow page 104