

Contents

List of Abbreviations	ix
Introduction	xi

ONE Russian Autocracy Defined 1

The foundations of western political culture 1; The foundations of Russian political culture 9; The Russian monarchy 13; Patrimonialism 22

TWO The Birth of Conservative Ideology 27

Difficulties in studying its origins 27; The conflict over monastic landholding 28; The triumph of the “possessors” and its impact on political theory 36; Peresvetov 42; The controversy between Ivan IV and Kurbsky 43; Attempts to limit the monarchy 45; Krizhanich 46; Patriarch Nikon’s failed attempt to place the church above the crown 48; Secular political theorists: Feofan Prokopovich and V. Tatishchev 52; The succession crisis of 1730 57

THREE The Onset of the Conservative-Liberal Controversy 64

Emergence of public opinion and the monarchy’s ambivalent reaction to it 64; Novikov 66; Catherine II and Montesquieu 68; Nikita Panin 72; Shcherbatov 76; Alexander I and the Unofficial Committee 79; Speransky 81; Karamzin 86; The

viii CONTENTS

Decembrists 90; Pushkin's political ideas 95; Uvarov and the Official Nationality theory 98; Chaadaev 103; Slavophilism 109; Gogol 110

FOUR Postreform Russia 115

The changed character of post-1855 conservatism 115;
Katkov 122; Samarin 126; Ivan Aksakov 132; Dostoevsky 135;
Pobedonostsev 139; Leontiev 144; Witte 150

FIVE Liberalism's Short-Lived Triumph 154

Refusal of the monarchy to grant its subjects political rights 154;
Conservative liberals: Kavelin, Chicherin, Gradovsky 157; The zemstvo movement 163; Struve 168; Shipov 171; Stolypin 174

Conclusions 179

Notes 187

Index 205