

Contents

Acknowledgments ix

Introduction: Judging the Court 1

Part I—Deciding Constitutional Cases

ONE The Plain Meaning of the Constitution: The Fallacy of Direct Enforcement 11

TWO The Model: What Doctrine Is For 22

THREE From Activism to Legitimacy 37

Part II—Easy Cases

FOUR Equal Protection, Criminal Procedure,
Executive Detention 65

Part III—Hard Cases

FIVE Gay Rights: Romer, Lawrence, and Goodridge 91

SIX Abortion: Roe and Casey 111

SEVEN Takings: Kelo v. City of New London 133

EIGHT The Establishment Clause 140

NINE The Death Penalty: Roper and Atkins 151

TEN The First Amendment: Campaign
Finance Reform 161

Part IV—Illegitimacy

ELEVEN Refusing to Defer 169

TWELVE Reviled Decisions 202

Part V—Striking the Balance

THIRTEEN Branches Behaving Badly: Whom Do
You Trust? 229

Notes 237

Index 247