Russia's Path toward Enlightenment

Faith, Politics, and Reason, 1500–1801

G. M. HAMBURG

A top intellectual challenges the long-accepted academic belief that modern Russian culture is wholly derived from Western European ideas. Examining a broad range of writings—many prior to 1750—G. M. Hamburg charts the development of a distinctly Russian path toward enlightenment before Peter the Great's opening to the West.
